

Call for Nominations:
2014 William A. Nelson Award
for Excellence in Health Care Ethics

The National Center for Ethics in Health Care is pleased to invite nominations for the 2014 William A. Nelson Award for Excellence in Health Care Ethics. This award honors the career-long legacy of William A. Nelson, PhD, former Chief of the Ethics Education Service in the National Center for Ethics in Health Care, who retired after 30 years service to VHA in November 2003. Each year the award recognizes an individual who has demonstrated a long-term commitment to promoting ethical health care practice in VHA, through excellence, dedication, and accomplishment in the field of health care ethics (including clinical, organizational, and research ethics). The nominee's contributions to health care ethics may be in the area of ethics education, consultation, policy development, scholarship, and/or leadership. Nominations will be reviewed by a committee appointed by the Executive Director, National Center for Ethics in Health Care.

Deadline for 2014 nominations: April 1, 2014
